

I Saw Daddy Kissing Santa Claus

At twelve, Brandy knows the truth about Santa Claus, but the secret of his identity is safe with her because she doesn't want to ruin Christmas for her little brother Alex. Plus, to be completely honest, she doesn't want to miss out on getting her own fair share of Santa gifts on Christmas day, either. So when Alex wakes her up late on Christmas Eve insisting he's seen Santa in the living room, Brandy knows he's wrong. The only people home with them are Daddy and Papa. But Alex wants her to sneak out with him into the hallway to see for herself. Can Brandy satisfy Alex's curiosity without spoiling Christmas for the whole family?
