Need a good laugh? Youve come to the right place. In this short story collection by Cody Kapocsi, you find answers to pressing questions such as How are pancakes born?, What does football have in common with the Holy Roman Empire?, and Why does that sweet, old librarian keep reminding me of the Los Zetas Cartel? This collection contains three popular and award-winning short stories by Cody Kapocsi. Pithicus Andromedous, Turnip Farmer Set on the mysterious asteroid, Bardun V, this story explores how rigidity within social systems affects those who subscribe to a system, and those who look in from the outside. Winner of 1st Prize, Prose, in the 2015 edition of Soundings, a collegiate literary journal. Identification, Please The secret life of librarians is revealed when a trip to the library goes bad. A zany story that will make you reconsider what you actually think about librarians. A previous version of this story was published in Forces, 2015, a collegiate literary journal. The Pancake Planet If you think it, it will exist, and if youre like the protagonist of this story and think of something really bizarre, then youre in for a wild ride. Can a planet covered in pancakes really exist? Theres only one way to find outimagine it! Winner of 1st Prize, Prose, in the 2014 edition of Soundings, a collegiate literary journal. This collection also includes a critical introduction to the works, which will prepare you for the fun that lies ahead!
